1632/18 GRANT APPLICATIONS

To review and agree grants from local organisations.

The amount budgeted for grant allocation in 2017/18 was £3000.

The Clerk reminded that as per the recent budget meeting, the Council had agreed £12000 in total would be allocated for 2018/19 to support events to be held in the Town throughout the year (up to a maximum sum yet to be agreed) and any remaining funds will be allocated as small grants.

In the event that a grant cannot be made to an individual organisation, the Town Council will pay the grant for a specific item e.g. additional bin emptying or toilet cleaning etc up to the maximum of the grant agreed, directly to the supplier/provider of the service, in support of the town event.

RESOLVED

That each grant application be reviewed individually and agreed.

RESOLVED

Sandown Regatta – The Clerk advised that money had already been allocated in the budget.

RESOLVED

The following grants were approved:

Green Town Volunteer Group	£600
Sandown Football Club	£450
Caulkhead Strollers	£450
Sandown and Shanklin Military Band	£200
Christmas Garden (Dec 2018)	£500
Hulabaloo	£400

It is noted that the grant allocation for Hulabaloo will be paid directly to a supplier of a service to support the event.

1633/18 BROADWAY CENTRE

The Clerk advised that items on the agenda relating to the Broadway Centre had to be deferred to a future meeting, to allow completion of information.

There being no further business the meeting closed.

Addendum to Meeting on 26th Feb 2018

At the close of the meeting, we were all startled by a young lady bursting into tears. Cllr Dupre asked her what the matter was. The lady stated that she was a Sandown resident and was upset at the decision making process of the Council.

An altercation between Cllr Dupre and a member/s of the public followed.

Tina Bailey
Town Clerk
