REMEMBRANCE DAY
Let No One Forget

Standing in muddy trenches, feeling all alone.

Bullets flying over me, wishing I was home.

I am shot laying bleeding, my troops unsure what to do.

I close my eyes while thinking of my family of 2.

I was here to serve my country,
with honour and with pride.

Remember me forever because today I have ~~DIED~~!

We all stand together to honour the fallen. To say a prayer for the lives that were lost. 2 minutes silence at 11 o'clock for those that are gone but never forgotten.

We wear a poppy and stand together to remember them in our hearts and in my poem forever.

Remembrance Day

Every year I wear a red poppy.

Many people died in the war.

Every gunshot was really loud.

Marching soldiers everywhere.

Bombs exploding

Everybody was scared.

On this day 11th of November we remember those who fought for our country. I think the people were would be kind and strong. We buy a poppy each year to remember who fought in the war.

Thank you to all of them

REMEMBRANCE DAY
Left We Forget

Remembrance day as a Boy
We marched for the soldiers
our uniform was smart
we prayed for soldiers
We thank you very much
The brass band played for you
The towns people came too
We wear a poppy to remember you, and thank you.

People died but it's how you remembered thoughts YOU were Brave, strong and caring. Thank you for giving your life

so we can be free.

God
